

Chapter 12.23

Development Agreements

The City Council hereby reserves the right to require and enter into a development agreement with any applicant for development approval under the provisions of this ordinance, the Subdivision Ordinance, or any other ordinance or resolution of the City.

The development agreement may address specific details about issues that have yet to be completely resolved, issues regarding phasing of a project, or any other requirement of the City Council.